22. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from [REDACTED] office of General Counsel, NSA. [REDACTED] said that he had just met with House International Relations Subcommittee on International Organizations [REDACTED] inquiry Staff Director Bob Boettcher and his Deputy Mike Hershman. [REDACTED] said that Boettcher and Hershman had refused to provide NSA with a copy of the Subcommittee's draft final report unless NSA agreed to provide to the Subcommittee additional NSA information which had previously been requested by the Subcommittee and denied by NSA. I told [REDACTED] that I thought that as the DCI's Legislative Counsel we had an obligation to ensure that necessary steps were taken to prevent the unauthorized disclosure of classified NSA information, and I therefore arranged for [REDACTED] to see a copy of the Subcommittee's draft final report which had been made available for review by the DDO. I arranged for [REDACTED] to visit Headquarters for this purpose on Saturday, 30 September and for him to meet with [REDACTED] DDO/EA Division, to discuss the draft report.

23. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Paul O'Connell, on the staff of the Morgan-Schmitt Senate Select Committee on Ethics Subcommittee, to tell him that I had received his letter asking for additional information related to the Subcommittee's investigation of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence [REDACTED] I told O'Connell that it appeared that considerable research might be required to answer the Subcommittee's latest questions and that it might take a week or so to come up with the answers which the Subcommittee sought. I told O'Connell that I would forward the letter to the National Foreign Assessment Center so that it could begin working on the Subcommittee's request and that I would be back in touch with him the following week.

17. [] LIAISON Saw Thomas K. Latimer, Staff Director, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, who asked two questions with regard to the Kampiles case. Representative Romano L. Mazzoli (D., Ky.) had requested of the Agency whether any other watch officers had received low or warning ratings and also whether the Committee could review Mr. Kampiles' psychological testing results. I am following up on both of these questions with the Office of Security.
